

What has been the professional impact on you in training and working as a Peer Reviewer?

CPD

Deeper understanding

Better listener.

-being SHAPE AND MILD

Understanding different national contexts

Being able to benchmark practice to other institutions

QA abd student perspective have deepened

Getting my first work positions in other industries within HEIs

What has been the professional impact on you in training and working as a Peer Reviewer?

New perspectives

Insight into other practices

New insights, different perspectives, organic learning experience

Understanding benchmarking

Greater conscience of the structure and mechanisms, as well as the interconnectedness of questions concerning quality.

Learn from other ideas

Reflecting my own perspectives of quality

Getting to know different cultures and mindsets

What has been the professional impact on you in training and working as a Peer Reviewer?

Learning to change my perspective.

Better understanding on a human scale

Reminder of the skill to wonder, and ask question instead of providing answers. It is a different mindset

Staying opened to all different point of view of a review team

Higher attention to the processes

What is the benefit to your institution of your work as a Peer Reviewer? Did you;

